

The Indiana "no call list" law has decreased the number of annoying telemarketing calls I received at home. It would be unfortunate if the law was changed so as to allow these nuisance calls again. Thank you.